

PROGRAMME

09:00-09:10 Welcoming & Introduction (Prof. Hussein Solomon, Department of Political Studies & Governance, UFS)

SESSION 1 (CHAIR: PROF. HUSSEIN SOLOMON)

09:10-09:30 Decolonisation: the Impossible Project (Prof. RW Johnson, Magdalen College, Oxford)

09:30-09:50 The relationship between critical race theory and decolonisation
(Mr. Terence Corrigan, Project Manager: South African Institute of Race Relations)

09:50-10:20 Q & A

SESSION 2 (CHAIR: PROF. JOHANN ROSSOUW)

10:20-10:40 What is the relationship between Decolonisation and Strategic Studies?
(Prof. Hussein Solomon, Department of Political Studies & Governance, UFS)

10:40-11:00 "I know my truth": Grappling with reality and relativism in South Africa's decolonisation discourse (Dr. Bianca Naude, Department of Political Studies & Governance, UFS)

11:00-11:20 Mind-closing and mind-opening approaches to the study of humans and societies (Dr. Eben Coetzee, Department of Political Studies & Governance, UFS)

11:20-12:00 Q & A

-----LUNCH-----

SESSION 3 (DR. EBEN COETZEE)

13:00-13:20 Marechera and the Classics: a literary dissident in post-independence Zimbabwean writing (Dr Madhlozi Moyo, Department of Philosophy & Classics, UFS)

13:20-13:40 The dangers of epistemic closure: Problematizing the decolonial narrative
(Dr. Mark Amiradakis and Dr Helen-Mary Cawood, Department of Philosophy & Classics, UFS)

13:40-14:00 Decolonisation as the continuation of colonialism
(Prof. Johann Rossouw, Department of Philosophy & Classics, UFS)

14:00-14:40 Q & A

CONCLUSION

14:40-15:00 Prof. Johann Rossouw (Department of Philosophy & Classics, UFS)